CONRAD PREBYS MUSIC CENTER

PROJECT LOCATION
University Center Neighborhood

PROJECT DESCRIPTION
This project provides 87,000 gross square feet of new instructional space, practice rooms, rehearsal spaces, faculty studios, administrative support space, and feature a 400-seat concert hall and is one of the finest of its size in the world. The Music Center also includes a small, flexible hall for multimedia and music theatre works, a 150-seat lecture/recital hall, and rehearsal rooms for chamber, choral, orchestral, and percussion music. The building features the newest technologies in student recording suites, computer music labs, practice rooms, and offices.

PROJECT PURPOSE
The new building provides students, faculty, and staff with state-of-the-art facilities for performance, practice, and production, as well as new offices. When it opens in 2009, the Music Center presents a range of concerts from classical music to innovative new works incorporating cutting-edge technologies. It is also an education center, as budding musicians from San Diego schools will visit to attend concerts, clinics, and classes.
